FIXFLO PRIVACY NOTICE

Fixflo (a trading name of Tactile Limited) is committed to respecting your online privacy and recognises your need for appropriate protection and management of any personally identifiable information you share with us. Fixflo has established this online privacy notice ("Privacy Notice") so that you can understand the care with which we intend to treat your Personal Information. Personal Information means any information that may be used to identify an individual, including, but not limited to, a first and last name, a home or other physical address and a personal email address or other home contact information.

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 and the European General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") that comes into force on 25 May 2018, the data processor is Tactile Limited (company number 08111417) whose registered office is at Unit 2 Dominion Centre, Elliott Road, Bournemouth BH11 8JR. The data protection officer is currently Katie Buxton (dpo@fixflo.com). The customer is the data controller.

Customers and your right to be informed

Choice

You may choose whether or not to provide Personal Information to Fixflo when you visit Fixflo's website (the "Site"). If you choose not to provide the Personal Information we request, you can still visit most of the Site, but you may be unable to access certain options, offers, and services that involve our interaction with you and you will not be able to register as a customer of Fixflo or to use Fixflo's services. If you chose to have a relationship with Fixflo, such as a contractual or other business relationship or partnership, we will naturally continue to contact you in connection with that business relationship.

We do not use personal data submitted by individuals reporting repairs via our platform for marketing purposes.

You have the right to ask us not to process Personal Information for marketing purposes at any time and can do so by e-mailing dpo@fixflo.com with the subject "Stop data processing" or by post addressed to Tactile Limited, Re: Stop data processing at the company's registered office from time to time.

What Personal Information we collect

We require customers who register to use the services ("Services ") offered on our Site to give us contact information, such as their name, company name, address, phone number, and e-mail address, and (in the case of paying customers) financial qualification and billing information, such as billing name and address, credit card number, and the number of users within the organisation that will be using the Services. Customers of the Services may use the Site to host data and information that includes Personal Information ("Data").

We may collect certain information about how you use the Services. This may include your IP address, geographical location, browser type, referral source and similar information. This information may be collected by a third party website analytics service provider on our behalf and may be collected using cookies.

When a repair is reported through the Services, photos of the issues and other information will be requested. It is important that the photos submitted do not include images of people.

Cookies

Some of our Site pages utilise cookies and other tracking technologies. A cookie is a small text file that may be used, for example, to collect information about Site activity. Some cookies and other technologies may serve to recall Personal Information previously indicated by a Web user. Most browsers allow you to control cookies, including whether or not to accept them and how to remove them. You may set most browsers to notify you if you receive a cookie, or you may choose to block cookies with your browser, but please note that if you choose to erase or block your cookies, you will need to re-enter your original user ID and password to gain access to certain parts of the Site. Our use of cookies and other tracking technologies allows us to improve our Site and web experience.

We use a number of different cookies on our Site that are broadly grouped into the following categories:

Analytics: We use analytics cookies to help us understand how users engage with our Site. This data is used to deliver customized content to customers whose behaviour indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

Retargeting: We use retargeting cookies which enable us to identify your device when you move between different websites and applications so that we can serve targeted advertising to you.

Email marketing campaigns published by our Site or Fixflo may contain tracking facilities within the actual email.

How we use the Personal Information we collect

Fixflo uses the information that we collect to set up the Services and for ongoing utilisation by individuals and organisations, for example, customers are asked to provide an email address when registering for the Services in order to receive a username and/or password.

Fixflo shall process the Personal Information in accordance with the customer's instructions from time to time and shall not process the Personal Information for any other purpose save as explicitly set out in this Privacy Notice.

Although photos that are uploaded by you remain your intellectual property, so that Fixflo can provide the Service you give us the right (an irrevocable worldwide royalty free licence) to host, store, modify, reproduce, communicate, publish and distribute those photos only to the extent permitted by this Privacy Notice. By uploading any photo you confirm that you have the right to send that photo to us and for us to use it in the ways outlined in this Privacy Notice. We have the right to limit the size and nature of any photos that are uploaded through the Service.

All information other than photos that you submit will become our intellectual property but can only be used to the extent permitted by this Privacy Notice.

Fixflo may also use the information to contact customers to further discuss customer interest in our company, the Services that we provide and any updates to it, and to send information regarding our company or partners, such as promotions and events. Customers may be invited to receive an email newsletter by providing an email address.

Fixflo may also use Personal Information and photos submitted on an aggregated and anonymised basis only for data analysis. For the purposes of transparency, data analysis in this context means the grouping together details of repairs requested using the Services to analyse repair trends and to assist us in improving the Services.

The processing of Personal Information is done to protect a landlord's legitimate interest in maintaining its property or properties that are managed using the Services.

Disclosure to third parties

Fixflo will not without the prior consent of the customer review, share, distribute, print, or reference any Personal Information or Data except as may be agreed between that customer and Fixflo, as required to provide the Services (e.g. to a contractor to resolve an issue raised through the Service) or as required by law or by any lawful authority. Individual records may at times be viewed or accessed only for the purpose of resolving a problem, support issue, or suspected violation of the agreement or agreements ("Agreement") that they have entered into with Fixflo, or as may be required by law. Of course, customers are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and security of their user registration and password.

International data transfers

The Services are cloud based and our data processing operations can happen on servers that are hosted in various places around the world. Personal data for users within the European Economic Area will not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of data subjects in relation to the processing of personal data.

Security and data retention

Fixflo will retain personal data for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed as set out above. This means that Fixflo will delete or anonymize data within 60 days following the expiry of any agreement with a customer to use the Services. During the term of any agreement with a customer to use the Services Fixflo will retain personal data for the duration of the applicable limitation period, such period to commence on the last date on which the data was processed.

Wherever your Personal Information may be held within Fixflo or on its behalf, we shall take appropriate technical and organisational measures against the unauthorised or unlawful processing of Personal Information and against the accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, Personal Information.

Access/Accuracy

To the extent that you do provide us with Personal Information, Fixflo wishes to maintain accurate Personal Information. Where we collect Personal Information from you on the Web, our goal is to provide a means of contacting Fixflo should you need to update or correct that Information. If for any reason those means are unavailable or inaccessible, you may send updates and corrections about your Personal Information to dpo@fixflo.com and we will make reasonable efforts to incorporate the changes in your Personal Information that we hold as soon as practicable.
